

“eDiscovery in MDLs: Overcoming Unique Challenges” Webinar Panelists

Monica McCarroll

Partner, Redgrave LLP

Monica has extensive experience working as a trial attorney specializing in complex civil litigation, having tried cases in both federal and state courts. Monica focuses her practice on providing advice and counsel on eDiscovery, information governance, and cybersecurity issues to clients in a wide array of industries, including automotive, transportation, financial services, defense contracting, and pharmaceutical. Monica’s litigation background allows her to step into high-stakes, multidistrict litigation and quickly grasp the key discovery issues and needs, develop cost-effective solutions to address the issues and needs, and then lead and manage the implementation of those solutions.

Dana Lynn Craig

Of Counsel, Gibson Dunn

Dana Lynn Craig is Of Counsel in the San Francisco office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher and a member of the firm’s Litigation Department. Her practice focuses on leading high-stakes, complex litigation. Dana has established a reputation for her skillful handling of the most consequential e-discovery challenges clients face. She is considered an authority at successfully guiding clients through their most complex discovery issues, sweeping across jurisdictions both national and international. Clients rely on her to effectively and efficiently navigate them through massive discovery, with Dana leading all stages of the process including setting strategy to drafting discovery motions to argument.

“eDiscovery in MDLs: Overcoming Unique Challenges” Webinar Panelists

Michelle Six

Of Counsel, Gunster

Michelle is a nationally recognized litigator focused on electronic discovery law, data privacy, cross-border discovery, and AI technology exploration. She counsels clients on the development and execution of defensible eDiscovery processes in connection with contentious, high-stakes commercial litigation, product liability cases, antitrust matters, and internal and government investigations. Michelle regularly advises multinational corporations on data loss and records retention, as well as challenges and solutions generated by emerging technologies.

Rose Jones

Partner / Dir. E-Discovery PM & Tech, King & Spalding

Rose J. Hunter Jones joined King & Spalding in 2003 and leads their Legal 500 Tier 1 ranked e-discovery practice. Rose is dedicated to understanding and managing the intersection of legal and technical issues that now largely dominate American and global litigation, data breach response, and government investigations. She devotes her entire practice to crisis management, eData, and technology. Rose is ranked in Chambers USA and Chambers Global as one of the world's top lawyers in e-discovery litigation practice.

“eDiscovery in MDLs: Overcoming Unique Challenges” Webinar Moderator

Andy Cosgrove

Chief Strategy Officer, TCDI

Andy is the Chief Strategy Officer at TCDI, responsible for guiding the development of innovative technologies and strategies that enable TCDI clients to mitigate legal risks and minimize costs in the areas of eDiscovery, information governance, cybersecurity, legal operations and data privacy. With over 20 years of experience as both outside counsel at AmLaw 100 law firms and, most recently, as in-house managing counsel leading information governance and eDiscovery teams at Juul Labs and General Motors, he brings a unique perspective to legal solutions.

To learn more about how TCDI can help with complex litigation management (including multidistrict litigation matters) through the entire EDRM lifecycle, please visit www.tcdi.com.

info@tcdi.com
Tel +1-888-823-2880